Holy Land & Jordan Pilgrimage

January 13 - 25, 2020

Dear Friends,

It has been said no devoted Christian can journey to the Holy Land and return the same person. With landscapes steeped in memories of Jesus Christ and offering a new encounter with the Lord, such a pilgrimage is one of the most profound experiences available to Christians.

Zachary M. Boazman

Rev. Jim Goins

I invite you to travel with me and Deacon Zak Boazman (soon, Father Zak Boazman!) to the Holy Land. It will be my first pilgrimage there. I have a great longing to stand on the banks of the Jordan River; to look over the Sea of Galilee. I want to walk the streets of Jerusalem and remember my Lord's journey to Calvary. We'll visit many of Christianity's most hallowed churches, including the Church of the Holy Sepulcher.

Come with us to the Holy Land. Let us rejoice in the life of faith God has given us!

In Christ,
Father Jim Goins

Wednesday January 22, 2020 – Day 10 – PETRA / WADI RUM – Following an early morning Mass and breakfast, drive to the Wadi Rum for one hour of 4x4 ride in the desert and enjoy its sandstone and granite mountains. Lawrence of Arabia spent a significant amount of time here during the First World War. This afternoon, we spend time at the wonderful archaeological Rose City of Petra, the awesome city the Nabataean Arabs carved out of the rock during the four hundred years before Roman rule. It could be defended by a handful of men because access was limited to the narrow fissure known as the 'Siq.' We travel that same way Indiana Jones entered in search of the Holy Grail in the Stephen Spielberg classic The Last Crusade, where the magnificent "Treasury" dramatically appears at the end of the gorge. Saturday, January 25, 2020 – Day 13 USA – We arrive home with wonderful memories of our visit to the Holy Land, and a new understanding of the people and places where our Lord lived.
